LOT 101

2007 LE GRAND VIN OSOYOOS LAROSE

One 1.5L Magnum in Wooden Presentation Case Signed by Winemaker Pascal Madevon

Le Grand Vin 2007 is 70% Merlot, 21% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Cabernet Franc, 3% Petit Verdot and 2% Malbec. This is a dark, concentrated wine with aromas of red fruit and cedar and with a complex palate of black currants, plums, coffee, chocolate, liquorice and cedar. On first opening, the tannins were firm and even a bit bitter on the finish, which is quite normal for a young red made in the Bordeaux style. Half a bottle was reserved for re-tasting on the second day, by which time the wine had rounded out to a rich palate with Christmas pudding flavours. If you must open the wine now, please decant it an hour or two ahead of time. If you can, put it away until at least 2015. My rating on this wine, 90-94, reflects where I think it will grow to be with cellaring.

1 3L Double Magnum MFV 2008 Chardonnay

Ultra Low Production: 44 - 3L magnums.

Yields went down in 2008 because of a devastating frost in the spring delaying growth and reducing yields. While the quality of the fruit was excellent the yields reduced the production of Micro Cuvée (the pinnacle of available fruit, barrels, experience, nerve and skill) to only two barrels.

Since production was below the threshold for a conventional release it was decided to go ahead with only large format bottles. Only 44 3L Magnums will be sold.

1998 BLUE MOUNTAIN PINOT NOIR

Early Vintage of this special wine

From the Private Cellar of Brian and Laurie Postill

The complexity in the Blue Mountain wines reflects astonishing attention to detail. First, they grow multiple clones of virtually every variety (there are at least five clones of Pinot Noir). Each clone brings its own contribution to the flavours of the wines. Plantings are matched to the soils and microclimates optimal for each variety. That is why there are blocks of Pinot Noir, as an example, in almost every part of this vineyard.

3 750 ml bottles 1998 J. Phelps Insignia C.S. - Napa

A great achievement, the 1998 Insignia (78% Cabernet Sauvignon and 22% Merlot) is a fabulous wine from what was a far more challenging vintage. Approximately 18,000 cases were made, an amazing quantity in a year that produced far less promising raw materials. Evolved, with a saturated ruby/purple color, it possesses a sumptuous bouquet of smoke, cedar, licorice, and cassis. This full-bodied, fat, succulent effort reveals admirable purity and symmetry, and a soft finish with remarkably deep flavors that caress the palate. 2002 OSOYOOS LAROSE IN ORIGINAL CASE - OKANAGAN

1 1.5L bottle 2002 Osoyoos Larose in original case - Okanagan

The second edition of Osoyoos Larose 2002, a joint venture between the French wine group Taillan and Vincor International, boasts a blend containing all five classic Bordeaux varieties: merlot, cabernet sauvignon, malbec, cabernet franc and petit verdot. It's a bigger wine than the '01 yet it remains refined and elegant in the Bordelais manner. Like some young Bordeaux reds, it is currently "shut down," showing more smoke pepper and meaty notes than fruit, but it's clear the cassis and black cherry flavours will reappear. Collectors should be all over this release.

The finest Petit Village produced in many years, this estate no doubt enjoyed the enormous success the Pomerol appellation achieved in 2005. A deep ruby/purple color accompanies a sweet bouquet of red and black fruits, licorice, and a hint of truffles. Made from 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon (from the oldest vines in Pomerol), it reveals beautiful texture, superb purity, a medium to full-bodied, concentrated style, silky tannin, and adequate acidity. It will offer gorgeous drinking in 2-4 years, and should keep for 15-20. 90-92/100 Robert M. Parker Jr.

2003 TALENTI BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO

One 1.5L Magnum

From Private cellars of Scott and Audrey Wilson

The 2003 Brunello di Montalcino is surprisingly fresh and vibrant as it opens to reveal sweet layers of ripe fruit intermingled with toasted oak, leather and spices. It possesses lovely inner perfume and finessed tannins in a very sleek, modern expression of Brunello. This is yet another example of a wine that has very little 2003 character, but that is delicious on an absolute level.

Anticipated maturity: 2008-2018. 91/100 Antonio Galloni

LOT 154

2001 CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES – PAUILLAC FRANCE

12 bottles 2001 Chateayu Lynch Bages in Original Case

Made in an elegant, approachable style .. this is a dark plum/garnet/ruby-colored, seductive, evolved, delicious 2001. Aromas of black olives, cedar, cassis, damp earth, and licorice, medium to full body, soft tannin, and an easy-going personality suggest consumption over the next 12-14 years is warranted. 89/100 Robert M. Parker Jr.

2001 CHATEAU DUCRU-BEAUCAILLOU – ST. JULIEN FRANCE

12 bottles 2001 Chateau Ducru-Beaucaillou in Original Case

A quintessentially elegant effort, the 2001 offers notes of liquified minerals intermixed with raspberries and a hint of vanilla. This medium-bodied, moderately tannic, stylish wine recalls the excellent 1999 as well as the under-rated 1981. It is a blend of 68% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot, and 2% Cabernet Franc.

Anticipated maturity: 2006-2015. 89-92/100 Robert M. Parker Jr.

Mixed Media on Canvas 36" x 36"

Beginning with no end in mind, I brush and layer on many passes of paint and sometimes mixed media to create what I refer to as Ambiguous Abstract paintings. Playing with drops, streams, and rivers of paint and watching them shift across the surface of the support is a very meditative process. Working with what arises in the moment; I make decisions about which way to encourage the paint to flow, which marks to leave as they are, where to add a glaze to make the underlying colour richer, and which marks to let dissolve.
